Merry Christmas

Christmas is the most holy of seasons. As God's love pours onto the Earth, hearts are finally turned and open to receive. And as they receive, their own generous spirit awakens within. At Christmas, we all want to give of ourselves. We seek that most perfect gift and that most perfect way to share our love with the world.

The magical awakening that Christmas brings annually is like a breath of life to our hearts. No matter what religion a person might be, the love that is shared among the children of God is unmistakable and irresistible. God's movement through love, the love of man to man, generates a power that not only illuminates the hearts but creates a connection with the celestial kingdom. We believe in Angels, we believe in Santa, we believe in love. At Christmas, we willingly set disagreements aside and choose to give and share instead. This act is a conscious choice to love. And as we choose love, we are surrounded by the Christmas angels. We are participants in the Great Expression of God.

Consciously choosing love was the path that Jesus the Christ came to teach. His life on the earth plane was filled with the miracles that occur when one walks in the love of God. And as we all know, Jesus was not just a teacher, he was the bridge. He infused race consciousness with the energy of the Divine. He was love made manifest.

"Every thing I do, you can do and greater". This year, let our quest be about becoming "love made manifest". All of the magic that we feel is real. The Angels are here, the love is unconditional and each person is a precious light of God's making.

As the Angels gather this year to celebrate with man the birth of the Christ, let us consciously choose the path of love.

I was at the grocery store the other day, and as I was checking out the cashier remarked that they were tired of Christmas. "It was always the same". I stood silent for a few seconds and then Holy Spirit flowed these words through me. "Christmas may look the same, so it is up to us to look beyond our picture of Christmas". The cashier shrugged her shoulders and I just smiled and left the store.

Needless to say, I had a rather enlightening ride home. "Christmas may look the same, It is up to us to look beyond our picture of Christmas". What was my picture of Christmas, and where did it come from. Then all of the questions and comments that I had ever had about Christmas began to pour through my consciousness.

I was moved from a magical Santa.... to Christmas lists...from Bethlehem...to my own quest to know of the birth of the Christ. I watched my picture transform from an outer story to an inner truth. I saw fiction turn into reality and I watched as a boy grew into a man. I came to understand what Christmas means to me. That is.....To be about the Father's business.... ever seeking to understand my ability to give Divine love and compassion to the world daily.

Jesus asked us to "feed my sheep". This is a simple directive with a simple solution, Love.

Perhaps it is time to go beyond what our picture of love looks like. Perhaps it is time to surrender to Holy Spirit and truly be about the Father's Business.

Peace,

Patrick

Dec. 16	A Walk as the Divine	Rev. Cindy Fuller
Dec. 23	The Christmas Message	Rev. Cindy Fuller
Dec. 30	The Gift of Eternity	Rev. Cindy Fuller

As we prepare for this Christmas season, I am reminded of the many Christmas's we, at Inner Quest, have celebrated. We have studied Jesus' life. We have reflected on the words spoken at His birth and the words spoken as He prepared to give His greatest gift. We have examined the metaphysical meaning of each symbol in the Christmas Story. We have studied the gifts and talked with the angels. We have prayed and we have grown. Every year, we have attempted to understand Christmas and the life of Christ in a new and deeper way, and there is still so much to discover.

As we prepare for Christmas this year, we will again sing the old songs and honor the old traditions. But when it comes to telling the story of Jesus' birth and its' significance, let our hearts be open to hear a new story that holds within it's core a path to a greater knowing. The gifts that Jesus the Christ gave to mankind through His life and through His Great Demonstration are still so far beyond our comprehension. Let us each ask for greater perception this Christmas. Let us ask for a greater understanding of the unfailing love of God for mankind.

When Jesus walked among men, he told them that he had so much more to share that they were not ready to hear. Let us stand forth as Metaphysical Christians and listen as God through Jesus the Christ speaks to our hearts.

Christmas- The Christing of the masses. Let that Light that will encompass the entire earth, begin to shine through me.

“Keep the Light shining in your heart and mind and remember the great privilege which has been given to you to help lead man onward and upward to the glorious Morning Star.”

The Be-Attitudes from the Aramaic

You who have a home in the active forces from God, yours is a heavenly state.

You who love truth and profess your errors and the errors of your society, you shall be freed of mental stress.

You who have humility- the metal quality of perceiving and co-operating with the good desires of others, you shall gain the earth.

You who hunger for the mind structure underlying the attitude, judgement and behavior described as just or fair behavior between people, you shall attain it.

You who have pure love, encompassing judgement and behavior, you will therefore receive pure love, encompassing judgement and behavior.

You who have a completely purified mind will comprehend the Invisible Souch of Creation.

You who through service, work effectively to produce peace and understanding under and in accord with God's will, you will be called the Children of God.

Inner Quest Simplification

Live in God and you will live in Heaven

Live in Truth and you will be free of stress.

Live in harmony and you will inherit the earth.

Live in fairness and acceptance of others and you will be treated fairly and accepted freely.

Live in Love and Forgiveness, you will receive love and forgiveness.

Live with pure hearts and thoughts, and you will see and understand God.

Serve God's will and you will be the Children of God.
