Inner Quest Fest

We are so grateful for the amazing turnout we had at our recent Inner Quest Fest! We were guided to have it and God did not disappoint! The weather co-operated beautifully! Just as we had asked, it stopped raining right as we started at 11am, and then began to sprinkle just as we were closing up at 3pm! Magic! And although we did not get as many first timers like we usually do, we had people coming that we had not seen in a long time. It was truly a gathering of loving Christed beings– God's children joining for the perfect reading, healing, and gift! One of our vendors had her best festival ever!

If Patrick and I were unable to greet each of you individually, please know that your presence made such a difference! Just to have so many happy loving faces was a breath of things to come! God is in charge and we truly trusted the process.

Thanks to everyone who participated at any level! We had so many volunteers, readers, healers, and those that could not come gave a financial donation to the effort! We are, truly, a church of loving people seeking to express their God like selves!

Inner Quest Church Turns 30 Years Old!

On November 20, we will complete our 30th year of service on this Earth. We are so grateful for all of the experiences that Spirit has brought to us and through us. We were born at God's Direction and have continued to follow guidance in every detail. And we love our members:

"When I saw the call for your favorite Inner Quest memory in the September/October newsletter I knew I wanted to contribute. When I sat down to compose my submission I found myself stuck. There were so many wonderful memories that came to mind. Inner Quest has been a part of my life for over twenty years. How could I pick just one or two favorites?"

So, in honor of Inner Quest's 30th birthday I send my love and tremendous gratitude to Cindy and Patrick for all of the love, teachings, healings, support, prayers, meals, phone calls, travels, good times, hugs, inspiration, shopping trips and shoe adventures. Without your generous hearts and your dedication to following your guidance as channels of God's love, I wouldn't have a spiritual family and a place to call home. Thanks to you and Inner Quest I have the relationship with God that I had been seeking. I love you so! Thank you for all of the memories!!" Love and hugs, Lori Tinsley

"Gratitude overflows our hearts as we embrace this journey ahead. We still have no idea how we will be guided, but we know that we will be! God is our source, our heart, and our love!" Cindy & Patrick

This month we fine tune our energy frequencies. Every week we will learn a method to expand and refine the vibration that we are putting out into the Universe. Many people ask why things don't change, and the answer is that the energy they are emitting never creates a shift in vibration.

We must learn to emit differently to create different opportunities. Join us for a month of creating a New Vibration for You. A New Reality will follow!

Our Christmas Family

We love to share our love with the world. This year, we are sponsoring ten children from Cherokee County DFCS. We realize that with our current level of attendance, this number of children represents a "stretch". However, we did not want to pull back! We don't want Christmas to suffer because of the situation we have all been through.

So, if you would like to help with this gift giving effort, you can call the church and select the child and the gift you want to sponsor. Then, if you are still sheltering, you can order the gift from Amazon or your choice and have it shipped to us here. We will wrap it and make sure it is included with our piles!

If you are coming into the church, you will find the lists in the foyer. Please see what gift you would like to give, sign your name for that particular gift on our master sheet and take the tag with you (the sizes and details of your gift are written on the tag). This year you are able to wrap all gifts. However, make sure you return the package tagged with the gift number and name of the child.

If you would like to contribute, but do not want to shop yourself, please let Cindy or Patrick know. We will make sure that what you want to give is purchased.

Remember every little bit helps to make Christmas wonderful for these kids.

All gifts are to be labeled with gift number & child name

Thoughts of the Ministers

Life is for Living!

We are all in the process of finding what works for us as we navigate these changing times. We hear terms like “the new normal”, or the “new abnormal”. Our point of reference has been displaced and our future seems in limbo. Do we really feel a sense of security as we isolate and grasp for the “next” safe protocol?

As I look at our world, I can’t help but feel that as a people we are experiencing mass amnesia. The simple values such as truth, integrity, honesty, love, faith even beauty seem to be disappearing before our eyes. The disconnect from life is devastating. I feel a profound sense of loss in our world today. And I know that I am not alone.

I work with many clients in the capacity of healer, teacher and counselor and a common theme is prominent. Many today are experiencing a “loss of self.” This seems kind of heavy, but it is very real. Spiritual bankruptcy results from the disconnection from our true self, Spirit, and the disconnection from God, our true reference point.

How can we reconnect with Spirit in the midst of the worldly perceptions surrounding us?

We can begin by remembering the TRUTH, that we are all sons and daughters of God. We came here for our Soul, to harmonize our unique love and create in the world. Living our uniqueness, we can truly be known, and truly know another. Isn’t this the highest form of honesty? To be authentic is a blessing for all. How to do this comes from within.

Meditation prepares us to receive guidance from the Father within. It is not too much to ask to feel God’s love and begin to truly know how loved we are. As we ask knowingly, we allow Faith to lift us and our life situation to a higher expression of spirit.

“To be in the world, but not of the world”- how profound are these words of Jesus for today. As we live consciously as “Spirit in the world”, the beauty of life will be revealed.

These simple steps will support our soul’s transformation as well as the transformation of our world. This is our Destiny.

I don’t know about you, but I need a HUG!

Peace, Patrick

REIKI NIGHT—November 14, 2020 6:00pm—8:30pm Your perfect healing session. You can call ahead to schedule!

2020 The Year of Change

At this time, our country is facing a moment that clearly reflects our collective consciousness. We are divided, confused about truth and ultimately all wanting good for everyone! Deep within our souls, we know that love is the greatest power, we are just not in agreement with the path that we feel will take us to the harmony we seek.

I trust God. And I am so Grateful that Thanksgiving is looming on the horizon! It is truly the time to put all of our differences aside and celebrate that love that unites us all. When we gather, using whatever precautions you need to, we are demonstrating the love and hope that we have for each other and our worlds!

As a child, Thanksgiving was always my immediate family. (We moved around too much to establish long term relationships.) And my memories were simply of the feasting! There was no real ceremony, no real traditions, just having a great meal with those that were on my soul journey with me. As I look back, the love that I felt for my parents and my siblings is immense. My father was usually happy~football was on~ and my mother was doing all the cooking~which she loved. We three kids would run in and out of the kitchen annoying and helping as we saw fit. And it was beautiful! Just that simple energy of love has been a building block in my world.

Maybe that is why I love Thanksgiving at my home. I love the people who come. I love that Patrick cooks. I love that my house is filled with Love.

I need at least one time a year when we are celebrating each other- Celebrating Our Journeys, Our Blessings, and How God is shining through us into the world. We need to celebrate one another. And if you are paying attention from year to year, you will see that great growth that each of us has been able to create in our personal paths of God expressing.

Today, our country may be divided. Let’s hope that when November 26 arrives, we have begun to see a path that is wide enough for all of us to walk together as a family of man.

I wish for you the most amazing Thanksgiving this year. Fill your homes and hearts with gratitude for love. God love for you. God love in You.

My Love to all,
Cindy
