Dr. Rocco Errico at Inner Quest

Dr. Errico is one of the nation’s leading Biblical scholars working from the original Aramaic Peshitta texts. He is an expert on Aramaic and Hebrew customs, idioms, psychology and symbolism. In this workshop, he will provide an understanding of the Bible from an Eastern Aramaic perspective by clarifying misinterpreted biblical passages.

He will be sharing with us about the life and times that Jesus Christ lived in and how his message would have been received by the people of that day. Dr. Errico always presents eye opening concepts that people of our culture would not realize. The class will begin at 10 am and the last hour will be set aside for questions. This is truly an opportunity of a lifetime! Saturday -June 25, 2022

Sunday Services for May 2022

Join us for this two month series of divine intervention for mankind!

“We know and understand the sorrows and troubles of your mortal life. And, because we understand, we ask you to strive to surrender your will and desires to the will of God, knowing that nothing happens by chance in human life, all the events follow a definite spiritual law. It is because you cannot see far enough along the road your spirit must travel that you become overwrought with fear and anxiety.

Your need is known, and God’s angel servers are always active on the earth plane to bless and uplift humanity. All they need is the cooperation of human love.”

The Quiet Mind by White Eagle

Mens Group

June 6, Monday Night -7pm

After a long shutdown, our men’s group is going to “test the waters” to see how they would like to recreate their monthly gatherings. On June 6, they will meet to celebrate life and to decide how they want their group to “look” in 2022.

So, if you are a man, and want to be a part of this new intention, mark your calendar and come to this first meeting. Your opinion will be needed to help determine the forward motion! Time for Action!

Life & Teachings of the Masters of the Far East—Book 5

Think of an assemblage joining with just that one object in view: youth, beauty, purity, and perfection! Is it going to cost us anything to live by those ideals? If we would live with those ideals always foremost, we would change our conditions within a week’s time. We have seen it accomplished within a moment!

Dr Rocco Errico

We were introduced to Dr Errico many years ago, quite by chance. Patrick found his Commentary on the Book of John and brought it to me! It was amazing! We soon found that he had written commentaries on all of the books of the Bible and these became a vital part of our on-going Seminary Program!

Once we realized he had moved to Atlanta to work at Hillside Chapel of Truth, we had him out to speak on several occasions!

Through Dr. Errico’s work with George Lamsa, he is now the living scholar of Lamsa’s legacy. Dr. Lamsa translated the Bible from the Peshitta text which were originally written in Aramaic before any further translations. Dr Errico has carried on this work!

It is through his works that we are able to understand what some phrases mean, what extreme cultural differences there were between the mindset of the people of Jesus’ day and our modern perceptions. I quote him often!

If you are able to attend the upcoming class/workshop, you will be glad you did. Dr. Errico is coming June 25, 10am-1pm. The cost is $30.

New Meditation Sessions Available

Due to an interest in using meditation for greater healing, we will be adding the following sessions to our weekly services. Each of these guided meditations will be one on one as one of our Ministers leads you into a space of deeper understanding, healing and growth.

Past Life Meditation– In this session, you will be lovingly guided to a past life that has a meaning for where you are in your life now. You will see some of the causal energies for what you may be facing today. Through forgiveness and understanding you will be able to shift the causal energies into ones of love and support. Use this meditation to clear the past and move into a clear forward motion.

Healing Meditation– In this session, we will move into the body issue that you may be having at that time. Whether it is a specific organ or an illness, we will move into the energy and again look for the causal energies. By applying love to the situation, all fear around the issue can dissolve. We can all learn our lessons in many ways. We do not have to break the body down to heal.

Higher Consciousness Meditation– In this experience, the minister will lead you in a meditation to higher consciousness. Together you will lift into a space where you can see your higher self and your Higher Purpose in this lifetime.

Each session is 50 minutes and the energy investment is $70. Call to book your session today!

Thoughts of the Ministers

Wishbone Creek

What a beautiful time of year, spring to summer. The buds and blossoms that have painted spring with the essence of rebirth are beginning to fade. A myriad of green now follows to complete a transition in the continuum of life. Soon we will be held in the warm arms of summer. A variation of this theme is to be our experience until we once again shift to the next cycle.

We are blessed to be able to experience this gift of God unfolding. This is true Reality. The transforming and transcending essence of God thru nature is the ultimate truth we seek, revealed to all.

The master teacher thru form reveals the law of flow. Flow seems simple but it takes surrender to work. How often do we interrupt or limit the flow of life thru our will?

Catch a falling star and put it in your pocket, save it for a rainy day- well, maybe that star has somewhere to go, and what's wrong with a rainy day? In the Big picture divine will supersedes our will.

Flow will allow us to let go and surrender to divine order in all things. "All" being the operative essence. We might define things as small stuff or large stuff, but the truth is that it is only STUFF. If you think about it, isn't it stuff that limits or blocks the ability of life to flow?

We have lived in our neighborhood for over 20 years, and we usually walk two miles each morning. On our walk we cross a big creek that I have named wishbone creek. There is a part about ten feet wide with some rocks that create some small falls and different water-flows. A small island has been created over time by this natural flow. Each year the islands position changes from being in the middle to maybe closer to either side of the stream. The shape of the island changes from year to year as well.

The flow of nature is a beauty to behold and a great teacher. I have watched the law of flow and nonresistance play out over time revealing a divine blueprint ever unfolding. This beautiful eco system, - wish bone creek and island has been my private mystery school- in plain sight. I have gained many insights and much wisdom that I have been able to translate into living in harmony with the flow of Life.

We all live and have our being in God essence. When we open our heart to God, our eyes are next.

Peace,
Patrick

No Reiki Night in May, Come in June

Since we will be having our Inner Quest Fest, we will not be hosting our monthly Reiki Night in May. Be sure to come during the day and receive your Reiki or other healing session!

Our regular Reiki Night will resume on June 11th.

Blessings Beyond

I feel so completely blessed to have our little granddaughter "fresh from heaven" to become my newest teacher. My first major lesson is one of acceptance. We don't argue, we try to understand one another. She is patient with me and I am patient with her. We always try to work it out. But one of the most amazing energy things she has taught me is how she hugs.

When Hazel gives me a hug, she folds her energy into mine, completely surrendering to an "us". I feel her oneness with me. There are no walls, no resistance, just a sweet surrender to my energy in that moment. And I know she feels mine as well. We become love.

(I am sure I felt this with my own son, but I did not have the words or understanding at the time, so I did not learn to repeat it.)

And there are other moments as well. Like when I am sitting on the front porch and she is running around and suddenly sees something that she is startled by- it may be a carpenter bee, a strange insect, or simply a noise- she runs and stands behind me-her little head looking over my shoulder at the strange thing- and in that moment I feel her complete and utter trust that I have her. She trusts that I will do everything to keep her safe. I will either teach her of the strange energy or remove it from her. Her little body pressed against my back, trusting me- again, we are connected in a oneness.

Now as an adult in this world, I don't know anyone else that I can share a Hazel hug with. Even Patrick and I have our "walls and ways." But I wonder if that is the feeling we could have with Jesus Christ, or our Father/Mother God. Could we stand behind Jesus when we are afraid, and hug his back and trust that he has us? Could we reach to hug the energy of Father/Mother God and feel that there is no separation- feel like we are completely loved, supported and adored.

Thinking of God in such a personal way is something that perhaps I have been missing. I always ask Jesus to help me, but I see myself standing in the middle of the issue still needing to respond somehow. Perhaps I could now see myself completely surrendering to his love and allowing an "us" to be created in the situation of need.

I want that deep Hazel love with God, Jesus Christ, and my fellow man. I want to hold another human in such a way that we are sharing a space of complete surrender and love with each other.

Maybe this is the gift that every child brings. However, in my life now, I am ready to recognize and receive the lesson.

It is my prayer that each of you find a "Hazel Hug" in your world!

Much love to all,
Cindy

Remember, Remember
The Sun beyond the Sun
Remember, Remember
Why the River Runs

There truly is more
Than meets the eye
What lies ahead
Is Revealed in "Why"

We are being asked to look beyond
This wisp of light we've grown so fond
The truth within our shining star
Transcends the near or far

A golden strand flows thru each heart
Its gift to free not bind
Oneness in harmony the truth in Life
Seek and You shall Find.
